Opening Responses

Officiant:
and

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has abolished death, and brought life immortality to light through the gospel. (2 Timothy 1.10)

Officiant:

Grace, mercy and peace
from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

People:

And also with you.

HYMN 306
O for a Thousand Tongues
to Sing

Collect for the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Officiant: Almighty God,
you have taught us through your Son
that love fulfils the law.
May we love you with all our heart,
all our soul, all our mind, and all our strength,
and may we love our neighbour as ourselves;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All:* Amen.

Psalm 130

Book of Alternative services

p. 888

- 1 Out of the depths have I called you, O Lord;
Lord, hear my voice; *
let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.
- 2 If you, Lord, were to note what is done amiss, ***
O Lord, who could stand?
- 3 For there is forgiveness with you; *
therefore you shall be feared.

4 I wait for the Lord; my soul waits for him; *
in his word is my hope.

5 My soul waits for the Lord,
more than watchmen for the morning, *
more than watchmen for the morning.

6 O Israel, wait for the Lord, *
for with the Lord there is mercy;

7 With him there is plenteous redemption, *
and he shall redeem Israel from all their sins.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever.
Amen.

Old Testament Reading

(Read in French)

Reader:* A Reading from the Book of Second Samuel (2 Samuel 1.1, 17-27)

After the death of Saul, when David had returned from defeating the Amalekites, David remained two days in Ziklag. David intoned this lamentation over Saul and his son Jonathan. (He ordered that The Song of the Bow be taught to the people of Judah; it is written in the Book of Jashar.) He said: Your glory, O Israel, lies slain upon your high places! How the mighty have fallen! Tell it not in Gath, proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon; or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice, the daughters of the uncircumcised will exult.

You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain upon you, nor bounteous fields! For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul, anointed with oil no more. From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, nor the sword of Saul return empty. Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely! In life and in death they were not divided; they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions. O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you with crimson, in luxury, who put ornaments of gold on your apparel. How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan lies slain upon your high places.

I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; greatly beloved were you to me; your love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women. How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

Reader: Acclamons la Parole du Seigneur.

People: Nous rendons grâce à Dieu.

HYMN 455
Dear God,
Compassionate and Kind

A Reading from the Gospel of Mark (Mark 5.21-43)

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered round him; and he was by the lake. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, 'My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.' So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse.

She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, 'If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.' Immediately her haemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' And his disciples said to him, 'You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, "Who touched me?" ' He looked all round to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.'

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, 'Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?' But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, 'Do not fear, only believe.' He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, 'Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was.

He took her by the hand and said to her, 'Talitha cum', which means, 'Little girl, get up!' And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People:* Thanks be to God.

A moment of silence is observed.

A short time of silence is observed to ponder the readings and psalms.

HYMN 467
Forth in Thy Name, O Lord, I Go

Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

Book of Alternative services p.53

Officiant: I believe in God,

People: the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Leader: Let us pray for God's compassion and mercy, revealed to us in Jesus the Christ.

Prayers for the church are offered

Let compassion and mercy be the hallmarks of our church's life and all its activities; let justice shine forth in our behaviour and in our conversations, and disrupt in us any sinful impulse that blocks out God's love

Lord of love:

All:* Let only your will be done.

Leader: We pray for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority.

Prayers are world are offered

Leader: Let compassion and mercy take root in every institution, policy and structure; let them challenge accepted wrongs and disturb complacency.

Lord of love:

All:* Let only your will be done.

Leader: We pray for the sick and the suffering, the lonely, and the lost.

Lord of love:

All: Let only your will be done.

Prayers for the sick are offered

Leader: Let compassion and mercy transform our attitudes to all whose illness or frailty causes them to be marginalised, ignored or despised. Let there be healing, restoration and renewed human dignity for all.

Lord of love:

All: Let only your will be done.

Leader: We pray for all those who have died, and whom you have brought home.

The names of those who have died are offered

Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

All:* And let light perpetual shine upon them.

Leader: May they rest in peace and rise in glory.

All:* Amen.

Leader: In the twilight years and the facing of death, in lives well-lived and now breaking into eternity, in the broken hearts of those who mourn their beloved.

Lord of love:

All:* Let only your will be done.

The Lord's Prayer

Officiant: Gathering our prayers and praises into one,
let us pray as our Saviour taught us,

People: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

HYMN

Great is Thy Faithfulness

Blessing

Priest: God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining, and whose power we cannot comprehend,
show us your glory so that we may faithfully shine,
and the blessing of God Almighty,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be with you now and remain with you always.

People: Amen.

Deacon: Go in the peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia!

People: Thanks be to God. Alleluia!
