Welcome to St. George’s Morning Prayer Service!

Please introduce yourself as you arrive and feel free to chat with others. Once the service starts, we will mute your microphone so everyone can hear the service.

If you would like us to pray for you or someone else by name, please send us a prayer request via the chat box marked: Prayers-

There will be welcome and a brief introduction at 10:27am. Then there will be a prelude to begin our service at 10:30.
THE SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST: TRINITY SUNDAY
AN ONLINE SERVICE OF MORNING PRAYER

Sunday June 7, 2020
10:30am

Prelude:

J. S. Bach: Sonata No.4 in E minor
BWV 528 – JS Bach
1. Adagio - Vivace
Played by Helmut Walcha (1907-1991)
Opening Responsories

Officiant: Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. (Isaiah 6.3)

Officiant: O Lord, open our lips
People and our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Officiant Visit us with your salvation
People and grace us with your sustaining Spirit.

People: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever.
Amen.
Officiant: Dear friends in Christ,
as we prepare to worship almighty God,
let us with penitent and obedient hearts confess our sins that we may obtain forgiveness
by his infinite mercy.

People: Most merciful God
We confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed,
by what we have done
and by what we have left undone.
We have not lived you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways to the glory of your name. Amen.

Officiant: Almighty God, have mercy upon you pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen
The Venite: St. George’s Church
Collect for Trinity Sunday

Officiant: Father, we praise you: through your Word and Holy Spirit you created all things. You reveal your salvation in all the world by sending to us Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. Through your Holy Spirit you give us a share in your life and love. Fill us with the vision of your glory, that we may always serve and praise you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.
1 Lord our governor, *
how exalted is your name in all the world!

2 Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.

3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger.

4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses, 5 What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
   the son of man that you should seek him out?

6 You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
   you adorn him with glory and honour;

7 You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
   you put all things under his feet;

8 All sheep and oxen, *
   even the wild beasts of the field,
9 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
   and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.

10 O Lord our governor, *
   how exalted is your name in all the world!

   Glory to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever.
   Amen.
Old Testament Reading
(Read in French)

Reader: A Reading from Genesis 1:1-2.4a
In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, ‘Let there be light’; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.
And God said, ‘Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.’ So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.
And God said, ‘Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.’ And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, ‘Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.’ And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.
And God said, ‘Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.’ And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.
And God said, 'Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.' So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, 'Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.' And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.
And God said, ‘Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.’ And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, ‘Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.’
So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them. God blessed them, and God said to them, ‘Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.’ God said, ‘See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.’ And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.
Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.
Reader: Parole du Seigneur.

People: Nous rendons grâce à Dieu.
HYMN 436

I Bind unto myself Today
A Reading from the Gospel of Matthew (Matthew 28.16-20)

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, ‘All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.’

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.
A short time of silence is observed to ponder the readings and psalms.

Homily: The Rev. Deborah Noonan
Affirmation of Faith
The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Amen.
HYMN 1

Holy, Holy, Holy
The Prayers of the People

Leader: Almighty and everlasting God, holy Trinity, grant that with one voice we may confess you as Lord of all and, in communion with your whole Christian Church, maintain our faith in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of peace:

Prayers for the church are offered

Make us one in faith just as you are one in faithfulness. We pray to you, Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.
Leader: Gracious God, give us the Spirit of love that proceeds from you, that divisions may cease, schisms heal, enemies reconcile, the discouraged may be built up, and the scattered brought home.

Prayers for the world are offered

Leader: Pour out the gentle dew of your blessing on the leaders of the nations, so that all in positions of authority may reign with justice and equity.
We pray to you, Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.
Leader:  God of mercy, look with compassion on those in need: the unemployed, the overworked, the disadvantaged, the exploited, victims of abuse and violence, and those wounded by sorrow, sadness, and the stresses and burdens of daily life.

The names of the sick and suffering are offered

I invite your prayers and petitions, spoken aloud or offered in the sanctity of silence.

Please offer your prayers, as the Spirit moves you Hold before them the cross of your dear Son, so that they may never lose sight of the source of their comfort and hope. We pray to you, Lord.

All:  Lord, hear our prayer.
Leader: God of eternity, gather into the intimacy of your perfect fellowship, all those who, by their death, have become one with you.

The names of those who have died are offered

Leader: Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

All: And let light perpetual shine upon them.

Leader: May they rest in peace and rise with Christ in glory. Bless and comfort their loved ones and give us faith in your promise of eternal life. We pray to you, Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.
Leader: Holy and life-giving Trinity, we praise you for your saints in heaven, St. George, and all the saints who stand before your throne proclaiming, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come.” Keep us in this confession until our lives end that we may be united with them in eternal worship of you. Merciful Father, accept these prayers for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, world without end.

All: Amen.
The Lord’s Prayer

Officiant: As our Saviour Christ has taught us, let us pray:

People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever,
Amen.
Blessing

Officiant: God the Holy Trinity make you strong in faith and love, defend you on every side, and guide you in truth and peace, and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be with you now and remain with you always. Amen.

Dismissal

Officiant: Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia!

People: Thanks be to God. Alleluia!
